A Message From Our Pastor

“Lookout!
We are elevating to the next level...”

If we thought that our accomplishments in the Lord and the blessings of our past were so joyous, then LOOKOUT; The best is yet to come! This passage is not telling us that it will be better, but greater! We are not in competition against anyone who has labored hard in the ministry from the beginning, but we are elevating to the next level. We definitely cannot attain any of this foretelling from the Lord without obedience and commitment to the Word of God. It was done in the past and if we only follow the same process that our prayer warriors and intercessors undertook, the Lord tells us that “He will give us peace.”

-Pastor Gabriel Austin

A Little Bit About Our Church History: From 1978 to Present

The Mount Olive Pentecostal Church of Faith was incorporated in June of 1977 and birthed out in Ministry in January of 1978. The work of Mount Olive began at 210 Rogers Avenue, Brooklyn New York, where their very first location was leased and dedicated for worship. The body of Mount Olive worshipped at 210 Rogers for about five years before moving to their new location at 830 Utica Avenue, Brooklyn NY, and has been there since.

By the leading of the Holy Spirit, Bishop Austin founded and served as Senior Pastor of Mount Olive. In recognition of the need to spiritually uplift and qualify men and women for the Gospel, Bishop Austin diligently and faithfully followed the leading of the Holy Spirit in formulating and carrying out this mighty work of God. Mount Olive serves to provide community service as the Board of Directors deem necessary and appropriate. It also serves to provide service to members of the community and the organization's affiliated member churches.

34th CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

Church Memories & Well Wishes

“When I first came to the Mount Olive Pentecostal Church, I felt the warmth of the Bishop and his wife. I never thought I would be here 26 years later, but throughout the years, the church has impacted my life very much. I was blessed to attend Bible School, and I’m also blessed with brothers and sisters in Christ. May God continue to bless Mt. Olive Pentecostal Church of Faith.” -Sis. Helena Isaac

Mt. Olive has come a mighty long way for 34 years—through the struggles and the high winds that blew Mt. Olive right out of the storms. I came to Mt. Olive on March 24th, 1978. This church was my very first home church since a young convert. I have learned a lot from the teachings of this church—everything I know right now, I’ve learned from Mt. Olive. Philippians 1:6 says “Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.” I pray that God will continue to bless the Bishop and his wife and the Pastor and his wife as well. I pray that God will give them the strength to go forward, because there is greater things ahead and in store for Mount Olive.

-Deacon Mills

“Thank God for this light house. It has been an encouragement to me. This ministry has strengthen my walk in the Lord. Since I have been going to Bible School, it has enlightened and encouraged my walked with God, by studying God’s work more. Praise God for what He has done. -Sis. Ena Neverson

“I was going through a storm and as I prepared to go to church, I turned on the radio and heard the Word of God encouraging me to go forth and push through. We have to endure hardships in order to get the crown of glory and get to heaven. My mind is made up that I will go through knowing that Jesus is by my side, holding my hand. As I sprayed my hair before leaving, the can of hair spray said “Olive Oil”, and I immediately knew that Mt. Olive is where God wanted me to be.” -Sis Shaneese Johnson

Church Memories & Well Wishes (cont'd)

Psalm 124:1 says "If it had not been for the Lord who was on our side, now may Israel say..." I can truly say that God is moving in this church and I thank God to be here. To Bishop & Sis. Austin, keep on keeping on. And to my Pastor Gabriel Austin and First Lady Catherine Austin, Romans 8:37 says "In all these things, we are more than conquerors through him that loved us." May God bless and keep you all. -Sis. King

"I praise God for placing me to worship here at Mt. Olive. I have grown spiritually from the teaching of the Gospel. I love to hear the True Word of God, and that word is preached here! -Sis. Scott

"Mt. Olive has been the first and only church that I've been a member of. I always remember being a little girl in church, hearing Bishop preaching, and every time the Word got sweet he would say "Woo Glory to God". I love Bishop Austin and the entire Mt. Olive family. I was Christened here, I was saved here, I was baptized here, and one day I will get married here. :) To my Pastor and my Bishop, continue in the work of the Lord, because God has great things for you to do. God bless you and I love you!!

-Sis. Cindy Bowen

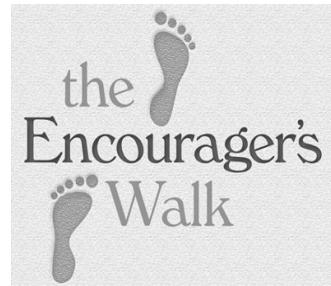

God is alive at Mt. Olive. The needed word was alive, just for me to keep going from day to day. I thank God for speaking to me so directly through those faithful ministers. I thank God for this ministry and I pray that the Word will continue to abide with us. -Sis. Venicia Shoniregún

"For the past 16 years, I attended Mt. Olive Pentecostal Church. Mt. Olive has impacted my family and my life by giving us the True Word of God. I always say to myself that as long as there is love, there is always room in the heart. I really found love in Mt. Olive from the Bishop and his family, and the family of God. I am glad that I am a part of the family of God—for a family that prays together, stays together. -Sis. C. Selman

"I was here for 19 years and I love my Bishop very much. I will continue to be a part of Mt. olive for as long as God says so. God bless all the leaders." -Sis. Husbands

"I joined the Mt. Olive Pentecostal Church of Faith in the year 1996. I came with pain all over my body, but God told me in Isaiah 53: 5 that "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes, we are healed." I thank god for Mt. Olive—for all your prayers. I thank God for the Bishop and Co Founder of this church. I also thank God for 34 years Anniversary. I wasn't here for all of the 34 years, but I feel so blessed and happy, because it is almost as if I was here for all 34 years. I love the Lord with all my heart and soul and I will let NOTHING separate me from the love of God, because he was good to me throughout the years."

-Sis. Elise Marshall

Well Wishes To Family & Friends of Those Who Passed On In Christ.

THERE ARE NO WORDS by Helen Steiner Rice

There are no words ...what can I say?
 At last her sweet soul winged its way
 To peace and freedom in the sky
 Where never again will she suffer or cry.

It's all part of God's great plan ...
 Which remains a mystery to man.
 We cannot understand His ways
 Nor can we count our earthly days.

But who are we to question and doubt?
 God knoweth well what He's all about;
 He knew she longed to "go to sleep"
 Where only angels, a vigil keep.

The pain of living grew too great
 No longer could she stay and wait;
 She did not want to leave you, dear,
 But she had finished her work down here.

So she closed her eyes and when she awoke, These are the words the Master spoke ... "Welcome, dear child, you are Home at last, And now the burden of living is past."

"There's work for you in My Kingdom, dear
 And you are needed and wanted here."
 So weep not, she has just gone on ahead,
 Don't think of her as being dead.

She's out of sight for a little while,
 And you'll miss her touch and her little smile,
 But you know she is safe in the home above
 Where there is nothing but Peace and Love.

And, surely, you would not deny her peace ...
 And you're glad that she has found release.
 Think of her there as a soul that is free,
 And Home at last, where she wanted to be.

In remembrance of our dear Sister Fraser. Though she is missed by many, we know by faith that she is resting with Jesus. Our prayers and condolences extends to her family and friends, and to the Mount Olive Family.

Keep on holding on to Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our Faith, so that one sweet day, we shall see her again.

To all others who have lost friends and family, and to those who are sick, depressed, or discouraged, we have you in our thoughts and prayers. We pray for your strength and for your comfort, because the Word of God ensures us that He [God] will NEVER leave us or forsake us.
