INTERVIEW WITH YOUTH PRESIDENT BRO. DUANNE AUSTIN

1. What is the purpose of this ministry?

To Impact the young people in our community to serve the Lord and to love Him unconditionally.

2. What are some ups and downs you experience?

There are many ups, but one that is most important to me is seeing a young boy or girl raise their hand in worship on their own accord without being told. That blesses me more than anything. One of the downs I have is knowing that the harvest is ripe but the laborers are few. This is why Jesus said pray the Lord will send Laborers in the vineyard. We need them bad in these last days.

3. How many years have you been the President of this ministry?

I've been in Youth President for Three years going on four years.

4. Is there any changes you would like to make? What are they?

Dealing with youth, you have to always repackage the message. Changes we are always doing something different. However the message stays the same. I would like to do more with our young men. This would increase the unity and build fellowship.

5. What growth have you seen since you've been in charge?

The biggest form of growth I've seen is that the youth are singing and taking an active role in our services.

MEN'S FASHION PAGE

Gentlemen its summer again and things are going to be alright! The key thing to remember is to be comfortable in your own skin! There are no two people alike. But thanks be to God there are clothes for every shape & size!

Here are some helpful hints with getting started on your summer looks when buying that great summer suit!

5'8" Guy

165 lbs the Short Man

Don'ts:

- Don't wear a longer suit jacket. It just makes your legs look shorter.
- Don't wear fat ties and wide lapels; keep it slim

The 5 Tips Every Short Man Should Know

1) Be honest with yourself. Admit you're short and buy short-length suits.

- 2) A pant leg with very little break will help you look taller.
- 3) Show some cuff to lengthen the look of your arms.
- 4) A peak lapel helps elongate your physique.
- 5) A lower button stance creates long lines, and that essentially stretches you out 5'9"

250 lbs Husky Man

Don'ts:

- Don't wear a roomy suit. It doesn't make you look slimmer—it makes you look sloppy.
- Don't go untucked

The 5 Tips Every Large Man Should Know

1) Wear a pocket square.

It brings the focus to your chest, not your gut.

- 2) Keep your jacket buttoned unless you're sitting down.
- 3) Wear a simple, elegant shirt. Avoid plaids and checks.
- 4) You can wear flat-front pants. They are engineered to be comfortable, even without pleats.
